MEDIA PATRONAGE

Honorable Partners, Prospective Sponsors,

It is our great pleasure to introduce you the idea of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum: Youth for Business. It is an honor for us to present you the second edition of the event.

The Forum was founded as a platform for discussion and development between the current and future generation of leaders, where students from top Polish and Chinese universities, that is the University of Warsaw and China University of Political Science and Law, can meet economic, business and law experts.

The platform is designed to generate an environment for facilitating exchange of ideas and dialogue concerning differences and similarities between Chinese and Polish aspects of managerial styles, administration challenges and law regulations. We all strongly believe that the Warsaw-Beijing Forum's discussions tackling the various aspects of Polish and Chinese issues of law and economy have a chance of being echoed in decisions and projects that will shape the future relations between our countries.

We would like to emphasize that our motivation and commitment were not the sole reasons behind the success of previous edition. It is the support from Partners and Sponsors that continuously enables us to develop and broaden our horizons. We have a clear vision for the future to relentlessly pursue growth opportunities placing an even greater emphasis on academic and business cooperation.

With wishes of a fruitful cooperation,

Members of The Students' Organization for Law and Economy of China

Warsaw-Beijing Forum: Youth for Business Team

MAIN IDEA OF WARSAW-BEIJING FORUM

Warsaw-Beijing Forum: Youth for Business is a project organized by the Students' Organization for Law and Economy of China, established at the University of Warsaw. The aim of the project is to build a forum for dialogue and cooperation between students from Beijing, China and Warsaw, Poland. The project is divided into Polish and Chinese part, taking place in Warsaw and Beijing. The participants of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum are granted a great amount of specific knowledge and unique experience of being a part of the innovative platform of social and international dialogue for the benefit of Poland and China.

THE PURPOSE

The purpose of the project is to develop entrepreneurial skills and cooperation between students from Poland and China. The Warsaw-Beijing Forum's leading idea is Polish-Chinese cooperation, which involves not only the representatives of main companies and government, but also the students from the top universities of Poland and China.

The second edition of the project focused on the creation of a platform for constant and productive dialogue between Chinese and Polish young professionals. The platform is designed to establish an environment for an exchange of ideas and dialogue concerning differences and similarities between Chinese and Polish aspects of managerial styles, administration challenges and law regulations. This essential knowledge will enable young professionals to succeed within the Polish and Chinese markets in the very near future. While promoting the entrepreneurial skills and knowledge, Warsaw-Beijing Forum was also established to promote Poland in the People's Republic of China and to overcome cultural and geographical barriers between the two countries. The purpose is to show the Polish culture and to boost the interest in Poland as a country worth seeing for its beauty, delicious cuisine, interesting touristic routes and interesting history.

THE WARSAW PART

The first part was held in Warsaw between 20th-27th of May 2015. Students from China University of Political Science and Law took part in lectures, workshops and meetings with Chinese companies who conduct business in Poland, Polish enterprises conducting business in China, global law firms, Polish Think-Tanks and economic institutions. The diversity of the meetings allowed the Chinese students to gain knowledge about Poland, its history, economy and legal system.

THE BEIJING PART

The second part was held in Beijing between 14th-21st of October 2015. Similarly, Polish students visiting Beijing had the opportunity to broaden their knowledge about the economy, legal system and culture of the People's Republic of China. They took part in lectures and workshops with their peers from Beijing.

OVERVIEW

CHINA & POLAND

CHINA has the largest and the most complex economy in the world. Since the introduction of economic reforms in 1978 the country has become one of the world's fastest-growing major economies. In 2014, according to the International Monetary Fund, China has emerged as the world's biggest economy beating the USA first time in 142 years. Figures show the Chinese economy is worth $17.61 trillion and the IMF estimates it will be worth a $27 trillion in 2019. China is also the world's largest exporter and importer of goods.

The stable FDI level shows that the country is still an attractive destination for foreign investment. Perhaps the most significant development in the FDI arena in the past few years is the growth in FDI in the service sector. In 2014, services attracted US$66.2 billion in FDI, up 7.8 percent year-on-year.

Growth will remain driven largely by investment but will require a re-acceleration in productivity. In contrast to the fast-growth environment of past years, China is now pursuing a more sustainable growth pattern. China's transition is multifaceted – from rural to urban, public to private, investment to consumption and manufacturing to services. The Third Plenum in late 2013 set out the associated roadmap, ahead of the start of the 13th Five-Year Plan (2016-20).

POLAND with its steady economic growth and political stability, is an excellent country not only for European but global investments. Poland is the only European country which has not experienced a recession, but instead, has reached the fastest pace of economic growth on the continent. Furthermore, Poland's favorable location in Central Europe on the crossroads of the main trading routes facilitates exports and imports worldwide as well as opens the door to the foreign investment market throughout the EU.

Poland was ranked fourth in Europe by international companies as top prospective investment destinations for 2013-2015. Foreign investors indicated Poland as the most attractive location for new projects in Central and Eastern Europe. Poland is also a leader in CEE region in terms of number of projects in the field of R&D – mainly due to large and growing IT industry.

Poland offers many investment incentives such as industrial and technology parks as well as fourteen special economic zones providing tax breaks that will remain operational through at least 2026. According to the Financial Times report "Global Free Zones of the Future 2014". Łódź Special Economic Zone is the winner of the European SME category. The report also listed: Katowice Special Economic Zone, Wałbrzych Special Economic Zone (commended for soft landing services), Pomeranian Special Economic Zone (commended for the CSR practices).

WARSAW – BEIJING FORUM 2015

WARSAW EDITION: May 20th – 25th

The first part of the Forum was held in Warsaw between May 20th-27th, 2015.

Students from Beijing and Poland took part in lectures, workshops and meetings with the most prominent and experienced Polish and foreign economists, lawyers, financiers, business experts and scholars, who have been gathered around one idea, “Youth for Business”. The diversity of the meetings allowed the Chinese students to gain knowledge about Poland, its history, culture, economy and legal system.

The participants included the most ambitious and talented students from Poland and China – young people who have proven once again that youth are eager both to learn from the best and to share their innovative ideas with the world.

Not only the knowledge has been shared during this week, but also new ideas have been shaped, so that Polish and Chinese Students made the most of the Forum. All the events provided a great professional inspiration and an unique networking opportunity.

We are proud to announce that this one-week event has been the greatest students’ conference focused on Polish and Chinese cooperation. Thanks to the media coverage, the valuable ideas presented at the Forum have been communicated to a wider audience.

We would like to extend our gratitude to all our current sponsors, attendees and especially the speakers who made this event possible, and encourage new partners to start a fruitful cooperation.

Please find below a short summary of every event conducted during the first part of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum.

Warsaw Edition Opening Conference

Wednesday, May 20th 2015

The Opening Conference of the Forum was held in Tyszkiewicz-Potocki Palace. The Forum was opened by the Mayor of Warsaw, Prof. Hanna Gronkiewicz-Waltz. Then, Paulina Uznańska, the Main Coordinator, introduced the project and its importance on a Polish scale. Prof. Alojzy Z. Nowak, Vice-Rector for Research and Liaison, spoke about cooperation between Polish-Chinese students, making way to Doctor Grzebyk's speech. Dr Grzebyk, the Academic Supervisor of Warsaw-Beijing Forum, told the audience that our project is a beginning to an academic exchange between Poland and China.

Later, Prof. Liu thanked for the China University of Political Science and Law and the University of Warsaw's exchange during Warsaw-Beijing Forum and expressed his hope for the continuation of the project. The official part of the Opening Conference ended with Prof. Góralczyk's speech about Sino-Polish relations, followed by a short debate with questions from the audience. During the Opening Conference, we expressed our deepest gratitude to our Honorary Guests, Sponsors, Partners and Media Representatives, for the incredible amount of faith put into our project.

Thursday May 21st 2015

Trinity Culture Lab

The official part of Warsaw-Beijing Forum started with a lecture by Mr Piotr Frankowski from Trinity Culture Lab. The subject of the lecture was: “How Peasants Became Polish Noblemen and What Happened Next.” Mr Piotr Frankowski with a great passion characterized the role of geopolitics on shaping Poland’s history. He also explained some keywords and phrases used to describe the changing Poland. The lecture put emphasis on honor and sense of Polish identity and how through education peasants started to think of themselves as Poles.

The World Bank

The World Bank’s analyst has brought up the issue that concerned supporting innovation and new business in Poland. He spoke about Polish innovations which face a number of legal and economic challenges. Our expert also explained to Chinese students that Poland is one of the most supported countries in the European Union when it comes to funding. Even though the country is an European Union leader in EU spending money, it needs to specialize more and invest in entrepreneurship. Finishing his presentation, he showed us how the World Bank classifies different types of firms.

Elżanowski, Cherka & Wąsowski Law Office

A meeting with Elżanowski, Cherka & Wąsowski Law Office covered an overview of the National Centre for Research and Development. The Centre was appointed in 2007 as an entity in charge of the performance of the tasks within the area of national science and technology, and innovation policies. When it was founded, it was the first entity of this type, created as the platform of an effective dialogue between the scientists and business communities. NCRD became one of the greatest innovation centres in Poland. We talked about the financing and legal status of the Centre, as well as its strategic programmes, both domestic and international.

Fryderyk Chopin Museum and dinner with Elżankowski, Cherka & Wąsowski Law Office

Knowing that Chinese students associate Poland with a homeland of Fryderyk Chopin, due to the kindness of Elżankowski, Cherka & Wąsowski Law Office, we visited musician’s Muzeum in Warsaw. The museum’s exhibits make up the world’s richest and most varied collection of memorabilia related to both Chopin as an individual, and his work. After the tour, the Law Office arranged the dinner during which the Forum participants exchanged ideas after an intensive day of lectures and workshops.

Chinese for Business

Polish entrepreneurs are increasingly willing to seek business partners in China. Therefore, the next day of the project was opened by the meeting with a representative of the Chinese4Business, a platform that allows Europeans to get acquainted with Chinese culture, language and business customs. During a short presentation, participants of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum could learn the basic differences between the European and Chinese approach to the business. They also got to know many details about Chinese business etiquette. The presentation was enriched with facts from the history of Polish-Chinese business relations.

Lecture by Professor Franciszek Longchamps de Berier

Professor Franciszek Longchamps de Berier is one of the most prominent Polish experts specializing in the Roman law. He gave a lecture on the common roots of European and Chinese legal system. These two legal systems seem to be quite different at first. However, Professor Longchamps de Berier found several links that connect them. He noted some common features that stem directly from the Roman legal tradition.

The Polish Institute of International Affairs

Polish Institute of International Affairs is a leading think tank that conducts original, policy-focused research. It also contributes to wider debates on international relations in Europe and beyond. During the meeting with its experts, the participants of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum could take part in analyzing the relationships that connect China with the European Union. Special attention has been focused on the plans of building a modern Silk Road. Improving trade transport and communication between the EU area and China could leap forward in trade and higher profits for European and Chinese economy.

Royal Łazienki Museum in Warsaw sightseeing with Sinopol Foundation for Chinese - Polish Economic and Cultural Exchange

The Forum participants visited Łazienki Park together with Sinopo Foundation. Chinese students were impressed by the palaces and gardens complex. The Foundation representative spoke about the historical background of the park. A Chinese Garden in the Royal Baths, complete with pond, bridge and pavilions in an Orientalist style, was a great surprise for the foreign students.

Monday May 25rd 2015

DLA Piper Wiater

DLA Piper Wiater provided Chinese students with useful information about companies in Poland: from knowledge on how to start and set up a company, hiring regulations, basic information about partnerships and types of companies in Poland. They also compared them with Chinese counterparts. The Forum participants learned practical information about setting up, internal structure, board and registration of a Limited Liability Company. DLA Piper highlighted possible obstacles in conducting business activities resulting from the origin of the investor and gave us solutions to overcome. The visit ended with a Q&A session and a short overlook on the financing transactions in Poland.

Miller Canfield Law Firm

Doctor Konrad Marciniuk from Miller Canfield discussed the source of European Law with the students. He also presented the rules of their usage in Polish legal system. Then, he briefly introduced how the Polish legal system works. Further, he showed legal forms used to establish a business in Poland, especially LLC. Dr Marciniuk compared branch and agency with Polish subsidiary of Chinese entrepreneur. He presented the Forum participants a brief summary of the Real Estate Law, labour and employment, competition and consumer protection, Intellectual Property Law, taxes and litigation; in short an essential knowledge needed to establish a company.

Kutno Terminal - PCC Intermodal

After a day of legal cases, the students went on a field trip to Kutno to visit our Partner, PCC Intermodal S.A. The meeting gave them a brief history on terminal services and presented broad range of offered services. PCC Intermodal S.A. is a leader among private intermodal transport operators. Terminal in Kutno is the first center of logistics and container handling which enables time and costs efficiency in handling cargo coming to the central Poland from the west, east, and the sea ports (north – south trade corridors.) Students had a chance to walk around the Terminal filled with gantry cranes and reach stackers.

Tuesday

May 26th 2015

Ministry of Foreign Affairs

The day began with a lecture from Zbigniew Czech from the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He focused on the issues of international law and dispute settlement. After the guest's presentation, a discussion regarding the very nature of international law broke out. The expert emphasized the difficulty of enforcement without a penal system. The discussion went on covering areas such as the group of emerging powers known as the BRICS countries and Rwanda genocide. Both Polish and Chinese participants were really interested in the very nature of international law and its impact on international community.

Sdzlegal Schindhelm

A meeting with representatives of the Sdzlegal Schindhelm, Raymond Kok and Doctor Agnieszka Łusznak-Zajac was titled: "Joint Ventures between Polish and Chinese Companies in China and Poland". Students were divided into small groups to discuss ideas for Polish-Chinese joint ventures and possible difficulties resulting from thereof. Later the ideas were confronted and the conclusion showed that in order to build a sustainable Polish-Chinese venture, there is a need to create a common ground and have a good understanding of shared goals for the future. Afterwards the experts talked about different types of joint ventures in Poland, process of company formation and the reasons and possible problems of investing in Poland.

WARSAW – BEIJING FORUM 2015

BEIJING EDITION: October 14th - 21st

The second part of the Forum was held in Beijing between October 14th-21st, 2015.

Similarly to the Warsaw Part of our Forum which took place in May, students from China and Poland participated in various lectures, workshops, case-studies and meetings. The events took part both at the China University of Political Science and Law, as well as at the premises of the Partners. We were honored as well to be invited by His Excellency, Polish Ambassador Miroslaw Gajewski to the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in Beijing.

During this one-week conference students had a chance to meet directly the most prominent foreign lawyers and scholars representing the Chinese society as well as global, international corporations situated in Beijing. Those meetings, combined with cultural events and sightseeing, gave participants a broad insight into the Chinese culture and history together with the legal system and the economy. All the events of the Beijing Part of the Forum provided a great professional inspiration for participants, food for thought and an unique networking opportunity between students from China and Poland.

We are proud to announce that this part of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum has been the greatest students' conference focused on Polish and Chinese cooperation organized at the China University of Political Science and Law yet.

Below please find a short summary of every event held during the Beijing part of the Warsaw-Beijing Forum: Youth for Business.

Studenci stawiają na Chiny

27 maja 2015 | Ekonomia

36 studentów z Polski i Chin uczestniczy w tym roku w projekcie Warsaw-Beijing Forum; Youth for Business, który ma promować współpracę między Polską a Chinami, budując forum dialogu między Uniwersytetem Warszawskim oraz China University of Political Science and Law w Pekinie.

„Rzeczpospolita” jest patronem medialnym przedsięwzięcia, które ma też wspierać przedsiębiorczość wśród młodych profesjonalistów z Chin i Polski. Drugą edycję Warsaw-Beijing Forum, która odbywa się 20-28 maja w Warszawie, otworzyła konferencja naukowa, na której przedstawiano m.in. perspektywy prowadzenia firm w obu krajach. Inicjator projektu, Koło Naukowe Prawa i Gospodarki Chin, zaznacza, że w tym roku z Państwa Środka przybyli studenci, którzy po raz pierwszy odwiedzają Polskę. —a.b.

Uczestnicy WBF w Ambasadzie

Grupa polskich i chińskich studentów uczestniczących w wyjątkowym programie wymiany odwiedziła Ambasadę RP w Pekinie, aby poznać specyfikę pracy placówki i porozmawiać o relacjach polsko-chińskich.

„Warsaw-Beijing Forum” (czyli „WBF”) to zainicjowany w ubiegłym roku program warsztatów i spotkań dla studentów wiodących polskich i chińskich uczelni, które odbywają się na przemian w Warszawie i Pekinie. Ich rozwijanie polsko-chińskiego dialogu kulturowego i akademickiego, a także przygotowanie uczestników do odgrywania w przyszłości aktywnej roli w dwustronnej współpracy gospodarczej.

Pomysł organizacji „Warsaw-Beijing Forum” zrodził się w Studenckim Kole Naukowym Prawa i Gospodarki Chin, działającym na Wydziale Prawa i Administracji Uniwersytetu Warszawskiego. Uczestnikami są jednak również studenci innych uczelni (np. SGH), a po stronie chińskiej uczestniczą Uniwersytet Nauk Politycznych i Prawnych w Pekinie.

Czym jest Warsaw-Beijing Forum: Youth for Business?

krajów, między innymi Polski.

Chiny są jednak atrakcyjne nie tylko ze względu na walory ekonomiczne. Kraj ten posiada wciąż rozbudowywaną bazę naukową, co czyni go aktywnym i atrakcyjnym uczestnikiem międzynarodowej współpracy studenckiej, chętnym do wymiany doświadczeń i budowy wzajemnych relacji.

Chińska Republika Ludowa jest światową potęgą gospodarczą i jednym z kluczowych graczy na międzynarodowej arenie politycznej. Przyczyną wielkiego zainteresowania tym krajem w ostatnich latach jest nie tylko wymiar historyczny czy kulturowy, lecz także zachodzące w nim przemiany gospodarcze i społeczne. Dynamiczny wzrost gospodarczy Państwa Środka stanowi inspirację dla wielu rozwijających się

TESTIMONIALS

The substantive level of the Forum, as well as logistic and promotional level, including materials published and activities taken, was very high. The organizers have shown a high level of professionalism and personal culture during cooperation and preparation of the project events. We value the level of care given to the PIIA as the project's partner a lot. The organisers discharged well from the obligations and plans pledged. We observe the project's development every year and we are glad that we are a part of it. We wish the Forum a similar success in next editions and we offer an invitation for further partnership.

- The Polish Institute of International Affairs (PIIA)

As a Mayor of Warsaw, I am happy that such initiatives as the Warsaw-Beijing Forum are developing our city and making Warsaw one of the most dynamically developing European cities in terms of science, culture, and business. I believe that by learning from each other and sharing our experience and knowledge together we can create a development opportunities for our cities and countries.

- prof. Hanna Gronkiewicz-Waltz, the Mayor of Warsaw

The Forum can help Chinese students understand more about Polish and European law. I think this project is highly meaningful, because of its kind of academic cooperation between students from two different countries. Due to the dialogue, we can do more to promote the development of both legal systems. In addition, the Forum can help young professionals to gain different knowledge from each other. At last, I wish the Forum and both Polish and Chinese students and teachers a great success. Our firm is always eager to support prominent students.

- Wang Bing, Partner of Huicheng Law Firm

Warsaw-Beijing Forum proves that once young, highly motivated and hard-working people are equipped with the instruments and tools necessary to run an international project, they are acting like real professionals. In two years-time Polish and Chinese students have organized platform for communication between two universities and two countries. Now is the moment to concentrate more on the content of all kind of activities within Warsaw-Beijing Forum. I do hope the project will be a chance to deepen students' knowledge and understanding of both China and Poland. Next decades will be characterized by an intensive cooperation with China and we need to prepare for that. If at the same time you can be a part of the project, cooperate with the best students, learn from them and have a lot fun, then being an academic supervisor is a real pleasure.
